

Thursday, 29 November 2012

Session 3

Friday, 30 November 2012

9.00 Welcome
BALLA, Péter, Rector, Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary (KRE)

9.05 Greeting
BÖLCSKEI, Gusztáv, President of the Synod of the Reformed Church in Hungary

9.15
SELDERHUIS, Herman J., Director of Refo500

9.25 Opening
SEPSI, Enikő, Dean, Faculty of Humanities, KRE

Session 1

Chair: VASSÁNYI, Miklós, Vice-Dean, Faculty of Humanities, KRE

9.30-10.15 Plenary talk
BALKENENDE, Jan Peter: Protestant Values, the Architecture of Society and the Significance of Dr. Abraham Kuyper

10.15-10.35 ANTALÓCZY, Ildikó: Citizens in the 18th century in Debrecen

10.35-10.55 ANTALÓCZY, Péter: The Relevance of Protestant Social and Economic Ethics in the Age of Globalization

10.55-11.15 Discussion

11.15-11.25 Coffee break

Session 2

Chair: VASSÁNYI, Miklós, Vice-Dean, Faculty of Humanities, KRE

11.30-11.50 ITTZÉS, Gábor: The University of the Reformation - The Reformation of the University - The Case of Wittenberg

11.50-12.10 FABINY, Tibor: The Reformation Hermeneutics of William Tyndale

12.10-12.30 Discussion

12.30-14.00 Lunch break

Chair: KONTLER, László, Pro-Rector, Central European University

14.00-14.20 SZABÓ, András: Die Gattungen der späthumanistischen Literatur in Wittenberg

14.20-14.40 PETRÓCZI, Éva: How to Compose a Synod - Presbyterian Dialogue in English and in Hungarian?

14.40-15.00 ZSENGELLÉR, József: Hebrew Language and Comparative Linguistics in the Early Centuries of Hungarian Protestantism

15.00-15.20 PÉTI, Miklós: „Dictates to me slumbring”- Orality, Literacy, and Education in Paradise Lost

15.20-15:40 Discussion

15.40-16:00 Coffee break

Session 4

Chair: GERGELY, András, Faculty of Humanities, KRE

16.00-16.45 Plenary talk
BÖDEKER, Hans Erich: Enlightenment, Religion, and Science.

16.45-17.15 KONTLER, László: ‘Progressive revelation’: History and Protestant Theology in the Scottish and German Enlightenment

17.15-17.35 KURUCZ, György: Protestant Scholars and the Dissemination of Modern Economic Ideas at the Turn of the 18th and 19th Centuries

17.35-17.55 CSOMA, Zsigmond: Protestantische Pastoren und Lehrmeister in Ungarn als Weinbauer, Gärtner und Landwirte. (Ihr fachliterarisches Schaffen und die Wirkung ihrer Musterwirtschaften um die Wende des 18-19. Jahrhunderts)

17.55-18.15 Discussion

19.00 Reception, Rector’s Office (Kálvin tér 9.)

Session 5

Chair: BÖDEKER, Hans Erich, Max-Planck-Institut für Wissenschaftsgeschichte, Berlin

9.00-9.20 TÖRÖK, Zsuzsanna: Circulation of Knowledge and its Impediments. Staatenkunde in Hungary around 1800

9.20-9.40 VANMASSENHOVE, Hendrik: The Historical Significance of Hermann Lotze (1817-1881)

9.40-10.00 UGRAI, János: Auf Zwangslaufbahn – schwungvoll das Sárospataker Reformierte Kollegium am Vorabend des ungarischen Vormärz

10.20-10.40 Discussion

10.40-11.00 Coffee break

Session 6

Chair: BÖDEKER, Hans Erich, Max-Planck-Institut für Wissenschaftsgeschichte, Berlin

11.00-11.20 KOCISIS-CSÍZY, Katalin: Fürstenspiegel in der Protestantischen Literatur und Pädagogik

11.20-11.40 DUSNOKI, József: Bildungsreisen eines evangelischen Intellektuellen in den 1860er Jahren

11.40-12.00 SEMSEY, Viktória: Protestant Education in Spain after the Constitutional Declaration of Freedom of Religion in 1869

12.00-12.20 HELTAI, Miklós: A pioneer of modern pedagogy in Hungary: Sándor Karácsony (1891-1952)

12.20-12.40 PÁSZTOR, Péter: Marilynne Robinson’s Calvinist Apology for Our Time in Fiction and Essay

12.40-13.00 Discussion

13.00-13.20 Appraisal and closing